

SPEEDY SAVANNAH RACE.

Mulford Drives Lozier Car to Victory in Great Vanderbilt Event at Savannah.

Grand Prize Race Course, Savannah, Ga., Nov. 27.—When a white streak flashed by the judges stand late today at the finish of the seventh Vanderbilt cup race, the American automobile world hailed Ralph K. Mulford, driver of a Lozier car, as a new champion.

Not only had Mulford lowered all previous Vanderbilt records, but he also had surpassed the San Monica performance of Harry Herrick in covering 202 miles at a rate of 74.63 miles per hour. At that he was pushed to win the 202 mile contest by Ralph De Palma, the brilliant driver of a French Mercedes. De Palma finished just little more than two minutes behind the winner and eight minutes in advance of the other Mercedes entrant, Spencer Wishart.

Only six of the 14 cars to start were in at the finish and much to the surprise of every one such stars as Bob Burman, the "speed king," and David Bruce-Brown, winner of last year's grand prize race, were among those forced to drop out through the defection of their racing machines.

No Casualties.

The race was run and won without the exaction of the usual toll of human life. Among the numerous accidents which befell luckless contestants to the detriment of their chances to possess the coveted trophy, only one imperiled life and limb. A rear wheel on Bruce-Brown's Fiat car flew off at the head of the long Ferguson avenue stretch after a turn had been taken at slow speed. Bruce-Brown and his mechanic escaped unhurt to live and race another day.

Mulford Barely Ahead.

At the beginning of the 17th and last lap, Mulford was but a scant two minutes ahead and the spectators arose and cheered him as he dashed by for the finish. Like an angry wolf on his trial, De Palma's beautiful blue-gray Mercedes swerved around the curve at a 75-mile clip and literally flew upon the straight-way in vain pursuit.

"Number 8 (Mulford) is in the stretch," cried the announcer through his megaphone, and the crowd rose as one and strained eager eyes toward the spot half a mile away where Mulford would come into sight. Though defeated, De Palma was game to the end, and he also was wildly cheered as he finished two minutes and 11 seconds behind the winner.

The elapsed time of the six cars which finished the race was as follows:

Lozier (Ralph Mulford), 236:00.67; Mercedes (Ralph De Palma), 238:11.95; Mercedes (Spencer Wishart), 246:20.37; Lozier (Harry Grant), 250:37.37; Fiat (F. H. Parker), 254:25.88; Pope-Hummer (Louis Disbrow), 269:02.68.

The average speed of the winner was 74.07 miles an hour. Herrick's record was 74.63. The record for a former Vanderbilt race was 65.08 miles an hour, held by Harry Grant, winner of the 1909 and 1910 races, who finished fourth today. No new world's records was hung up today, except that for 202 miles, as Nazarro averaged 74.15 miles for 528 meters in the race for the Florio cup in France in 1908.

Interest now turns to the Grand Prize race to be run on Thanksgiving day. The famous German Benz team, led by Hemery, is entered in this contest, which will be longer by seven laps than today's contest.

"BARGAINED" FOR PRESIDENCY?

Roosevelt's Name Figures in Startling Statement—Alleged Conversation With Money King.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Wharton Barker, a retired banker, of Philadelphia, sprang a sensation on the senate committee on interstate commerce today, when he alleged that a New York financier told him in 1904 that the financial interests would support Theodore Roosevelt for president, because Roosevelt had "made a bargain with them on the railroad question."

Mr. Barker's statement came in the midst of a vigorous attack on the "Money Trust," in which he alleges also that President Roosevelt had been given the details of the impending panic of 1907 several months before it happened, but took no action to prevent it.

Mr. Barker also declared that the Aldrich currency plan was the handiwork, not of former Senator Aldrich, but of Mr. Warbur, of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York, and that a fund of $1,000,000 had been started to secure its adoption.

Switched to Roosevelt.

Free or four weeks before the election in 1904," said Mr. Barker, "I was walking down Broadway when I met one of the most distinguished money kings in New York, a man now dead. He said to me: 'We are going to elect Roosevelt.' I expressed surprise and asked if he had given up the support of Parker. He said yes, that they had frightened Roosevelt so he had made a bargain with them."

Members of the committee looked somewhat incredulous and Mr. Barker added:

"I wish Mr. Roosevelt were here."

"I wish he were," said Senator Townsend. "It would be interesting."

Mr. Barker said the financial giant whom he declined to name told him that Roosevelt had "made a bargain on the railroad question."

Mr. Barker continued:

All Fixed, it Seems.

"He is to holler all he wants to," he told me, "but by and by a railroad bill will be brought in by recommendation of the president, cutting off rebates and free passes, which suits us who own the railroads, permitting the railroads to make pooling arrangements and providing for maximum rates."

The railroad man added, said Mr. Barker, that under the latter authority it would be possible to add from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 to the total freight charges paid by the American public.

"I told him I did not believe Roosevelt had made any such agreement," said Mr. Barker, "but when the annual message of 1905 went to congress he recommended most of those things. I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him what I had heard, and that I had thought the man lied, but now I must believe he had not. It was the only letter of mine Mr. Roosevelt ever failed to answer."

Harriman the Man?

Members of the committee asked Mr. Barker to give the name of the financial man who had told him that Roosevelt was to be elected.

"I can not do it," said Mr. Barker, "but subsequently somebody was alleged to have stolen some correspondence between Mr. Harriman and the president, telling of $250,000 put up for election expenses in the city of New York."

Wife, Mother, Sister, Children, Victims of Italian's Rage.
